Dear Hiring Manager,

As a highly skilled web developer and data analyst, I have been tracking the position with interest. My experience aligns well with the qualifications you are seeking, and I am certain I would make a valuable impact to your organization.

With over 6 years of experience as an analyst, I am adept in trend analysis, predictive forecasting, and client ready reporting. While my on the job experience has afforded me a versatile skill set, including analytical foresight and client need awareness, I excel at:

- Monitoring data and sales language trends across 2 nationwide channels.
- Being the point of contact for multiple levels stake holders.
- Identifying breaks in trends, understand drivers, and surface opportunities and threats.
- Designing models that are sound in theory and statistics.
- Developing reporting for development teams by integrating data from different sources.
- Participating in weekly team meetings to ensure insight-based decision-making.

In addition to my experience and personal qualities, I have a substantial educational foundation and a dedication to analytical problem solving. I am very enthusiastic about HomeAway's focus on maximizing the travelers experience and understanding that data can uncover how to do so and would welcome the opportunity to contribute to your continued success.

Please review my resume for additional details regarding my expertise and career achievements. I will follow up to request an appointment to discuss how my experience and background meets your needs.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Genuinely,

Spencer Vigil
